

April 25, 2011 - The Water Division is upgrading and establishing a new pressure zone to improve the water system and meet new regulations. Please click the link to read this important information and to view the map of the affected area.