

May 9, 2011- The City of Rockford Water System Improvement Project has been awarded Public Works Project of the Year for 2011 in the Environment -$10 million to $100 million category by the Illinois Chapter of the American Public Works Association. The award was presented to Rockford Public Works Director Timothy Hanson and Water Division Superintendent Tim Holdeman at the organization's Chapter Conference in Peoria, Illinois on Friday, May 6.